GERMANY MUST PRESENT NEW PAYMENT PLANS

Michigan Senator Denies Report He Would Resign Seat After Vote of Vindication.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—(U. P.)—Newberry today denied the reports that he would resign after a vote of vindication. It is claimed in the senate political circles that McNary was "clubbed" into voting for Newberry by an administration threat to block his reclamation bill.

Although Senator Newberry was confirmed in his seat the democrats will not drop the case. The record will be carried into the senatorial primaries and general elections this fall, the democrats counting on an issue to win them control in the senate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—(A. P.)—The Newberry case in the formal records of the senate passed into history today. The senate chamber is strangely silent after the strain of battle ending in seating Newberry, 46 to 41 late yesterday, after more than three years of uncertainty and suspense.

The moratorium ceases when Germany and the allies agree to a new form of payments. Installments are payable every ten days during the moratorium and represent 25 percent of Germany's exports.

No answer has been received to his cable. In an interview Ford said he received a cablegram a few days ago inquiring if he would buy the presumably obsolete French battleships. He immediately replied his only proposition would be to purchase and junk the entire French navy. He never received a reply. Ford disbelieves in disarmament unless a provision is made for the employment of people unemployed thereby.

Ford would comment only briefly on the Newberry case and warned that the senators favoring Newberry must answer to the people.
